In the Neutral Zone: February Issue Now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The February 2014 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at <http://www.crdsc-sdrcc.ca/fr/media-bulletins.jsp>. In this edition, the featured article discusses ways to mitigate the negative impact of disputes that oppose members of the same team. In addition to the profile of a mediator and arbitrator of the SDRCC, recent Canadian nominations to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) are highlighted, as well as some SDRCC news.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by contacting Cynthia Colas Livernois, Education and Communication Coordinator, at ccolas@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About the SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by Sport Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
