Pat is a partner at the Bay Street litigation boutique Weisz Fell Kour LLP. Prior to joining Weisz Fell Kour, Pat spent eight years at the “Seven Sisters” firm of Stikeman Elliott LLP.

Pat is a disputes lawyer. He has extensive experience acting in complex, high-profile litigation. Pat often represents individuals accused of corporate misconduct whose reputations are at risk. He appears at all levels of court in Ontario, and before administrative tribunals. Pat has been recognized by Best Lawyers in Canada as “One to Watch” in Financial Services and Restructuring Law.

Prior to practicing law, Pat was a competitive alpine skier and rugby player. Pat attended the National Ski Academy and competed in alpine skiing at the 2003 Canada Winter Games and played varsity rugby at Bishop’s University.

Pat graduated from Dalhousie University’s Schulich School of Law. He is a member of the Law Society of Ontario, the Ontario Bar Association, the Advocates’ Society, and the Turnaround Management Association. Pat is a member-at-large of The Advocates’ Society’s Insolvency Litigation Practice Group.
